Dear Parents/Carers/Friends,

Happy World Teachers' Day!

Today, we're celebrating the incredible dedication, hard work, and heart that our teachers at Belvoir bring to school every single day! From making sure our students are safe and engaged to sparking curiosity and learning, our teachers go above and beyond.

To show our appreciation, our students surprised them with a heartfelt card, and we treated our amazing teachers to a well-deserved morning tea. During the school assembly, our school captains led the charge in honouring them, and the students gave their teachers a thunderous round of applause.

In other exciting news, our Orange and Purple Pod students had a blast at their footy clinic on Tuesday! They'll be back for round two next week, ready to tackle more fun on the field.

Over the last few weeks, we have been practicing our shoelace tying skills. The students are getting much quicker and are very proud of their efforts when they can tie them. Definitely something to add to their Santa lists.

We have started our new maths unit, money and financial skills. Students have been practicing identifying, sorting and valuing money. We have also started our class reward system to also include money for when students are demonstrating the school values.
